

SAMUEL RYDER ACADEMY

The client required two new canopies to create an attractive courtyard in the Academy.

J & J Carter constructed a covered walkway around the perimeter of the courtyard covering 200 sq.m, and a large central canopy covering 50 sq.m.

Erection was completed within two weeks with minimal disruption. The canopies succeeded in enhancing the courtyard of the Academy, creating additional sheltered space for both the staff and the students.

KEY FACTS

LOCATION: United Kingdom

INDUSTRY: Education

MATERIALS: PVC/PES

STRUCTURES: Tension Structure

ROOF FORMS: Hypar